A special exhibition by Nationalgalerie – Staatliche Museen zu Berlin

Press preview: Tuesday, 25 February 2025, 11 am

Opening: Thursday, 27 February 2025, 7 pm

We cordially invite you to the press preview of the exhibition “Ayoung Kim. Many Worlds Over” on Tuesday, 25 February 2025, 11 am at Hamburger Bahnhof.

Using artificial intelligence, video, game simulations, sculptures, and references to South Korean webcomics, Ayoung Kim creates a fictional universe in Hamburger Bahnhof with its own spatial and temporal laws. The video installations and sculptures in the artist's first solo exhibition in a German museum explore concepts of time and reality, as well as questions of belonging and queerness. Kim's protagonists include humans, mythological beings, and virtual existences that intersect across various times and spaces. The exhibition at Hamburger Bahnhof invites the audience to immerse themselves in Kim's virtual landscapes, which she brings into the museum space. Visitors act as both observers and participants, capable of influencing the narrative presented from their own perspective. Born in 1979, Ayoung Kim's work explores the symbiosis between data, humanity, and the planet. The exhibition at Hamburger Bahnhof provides insight into the work of the multidisciplinary artist through pieces from recent years as well as new artworks.

The exhibition is part of the European Month of Photography.
